

Kimberly Huebner

Insurance Liaison

Kimberly Huebner is the Insurance Liaison for Phillips ADR. She has particular expertise in Directors' and Officers' Management Liability Insurance and Employment Practices Liability Insurance for public, private, and not-for-profit companies of all sizes and for public entities. As Insurance Liaison, Kimberly is responsible for promoting prompt and effective communication between insurance carriers and Phillips ADR in advance of mediation/arbitration, diligently reporting such communications to the applicable Panelist(s), and coordinating further communications by and between Panelists and insurance carriers.

Before joining Phillips ADR, Kimberly acted as Vice President of Technical Claims for D&O Claims at AIG Claims, Inc. In this role, Kimberly was responsible for identifying and tracking litigation trends, and analyzing and upwardly reporting in numerous formats the potential exposure both of these trends and the concurrent divisional load. Kimberly also specialized in identifying and evaluating particularly complex and/or severe matters for strategic resolution. However, her favorite duties were training and mentoring colleagues on: claims handling best practices, investigating and evaluating coverage under various policy forms, and negotiating favorable outcomes for all parties involved.

Kimberly received her Bachelor of Science degree from the Roanoke College, with a specialization in psychology. She graduated from New York Law School where she served as competitor for and coach of the Moot Court Society. Following her graduation, Kimberly entered private practice, with focus on employment law and bankruptcy law. Kimberly joined AIG Claims in 2007 as an adjuster in the EPL/D&O Claims group. In 2011, she was asked to join the D&O Complex Claims team, where she remained until joining Phillips ADR.

She is admitted to the New York State Bar.
